Palace Station Hotel and Casino, Inc. and Professional, Clerical & Miscellaneous Employees, Local 995, affiliated with International Brotherhood of Teamsters, AFL-CIO. Case 28-CA-15557

March 10, 1999

DECISION AND ORDER

BY MEMBERS FOX, LIEBMAN, AND BRAME

Pursuant to a charge filed on December 2, 1998, the General Counsel of the National Labor Relations Board issued a complaint on January 12, 1999, alleging that the Respondent has violated Section 8(a)(5) and (1) of the National Labor Relations Act by refusing the Union's request to bargain following the Union's certification in Case 28-RC-5652. (Official notice is taken of the "record" in the representation proceeding as defined in the Board's Rules and Regulations, Secs. 102.68 and 102.69(g); Frontier Hotel, 265 NLRB 343 (1982).) The Respondent filed an answer admitting in part and denying in part the allegations in the complaint.

On February 10, 1999, the General Counsel filed a Motion for Summary Judgment. On February 18, 1999, the Board issued an order transferring the proceeding to the Board and a Notice to Show Cause why the motion should not be granted. The Respondent filed a response.

The National Labor Relations Board has delegated its authority in this proceeding to a three-member panel.

Ruling on Motion for Summary Judgment

In its answer and responses, the Respondent admits its refusal to bargain, but attacks the validity of the certification on the basis of the Board's unit determination in the representation proceeding.

All representation issues raised by the Respondent were or could have been litigated in the prior representation proceeding. The Respondent does not offer to adduce at a hearing any newly discovered and previously unavailable evidence, nor does it allege any special circumstances that would require the Board to reexamine the decision made in the representation proceeding. We therefore find that the Respondent has not raised any representation issue that is properly litigable in this unfair labor practice proceeding. See Pittsburgh Plate Glass Co. v. NLRB, 313 U.S. 146, 162 (1941). Accordingly, we grant the Motion for Summary Judgment.

On the entire record, the Board makes the following

FINDINGS OF FACT

I. JURISDICTION

The Respondent is now, and has been at all time material, a Nevada corporation with an office and place of business in Las Vegas, Nevada, where it is engaged in the hotel and gaming industry. During the 12-month period ending December 2, 1998, the Respondent, in the course and conduct of its business operations described above, purchased and received at the Respondent's facility products, goods, and materials valued in excess of $50,000 directly from points outside the State of Nevada and derived gross revenues therefrom in excess of $500,000.

We find that the Respondent is an employer engaged in commerce within the meaning of Section 2(6) and (7) of the Act and that the Union is a labor organization within the meaning of Section 2(5) of the Act.

II. ALLEGED UNFAIR LABOR PRACTICES

A. The Certification

Following the election held August 13, 1998, the Union was certified on October 30, 1998, as the exclusive collective-bargaining representative of the employees in the following appropriate unit:

All regular full-time warehouse employees employed by the Respondent at its facility located at 2411 W. Sahara Avenue, Las Vegas, Nevada; excluding all other employees, office clerical employees, professional employees, managerial employees, guards and supervisors as defined in the Act.

The Union continues to be the exclusive representative under Section 9(a) of the Act.

B. Refusal to bargain

Since November 19, 1998, the Union has requested the Respondent to bargain, and, since November 19, 1998, the Respondent has refused. We find that this refusal constitutes an unlawful refusal to bargain in violation of Section 8(a)(5) and (1) of the Act.

CONCLUSION OF LAW

By refusing on and after November 19, 1998, to bargain with the Union as the exclusive collective-bargaining representative of employees in the appropriate unit, the Respondent has engaged in unfair labor practices affecting commerce within the meaning of Section 8(a)(5) and (1) and Section 2(6) and (7) of the Act.

REMEDY

Having found that the Respondent has violated Section 8(a)(5) and (1) of the Act, we shall order it to cease and desist, to bargain on request with the Union and, if an understanding is reached, to embody the understanding in a signed agreement.

To ensure that the employees are accorded the services of their selected bargaining agent for the period provided by the law, we shall construe the initial period of the certification as beginning the date the Respondent begins to bargain in good faith with the Union. Mar-Jac Poultry Co., 136 NLRB 785 (1962); Lamar Hotel, 140 NLRB

In the event that, during the pendency of these proceedings, the Respondent has gone out of business or closed the facility involved in these proceedings, the Respondent shall duplicate and mail, at its own expense, a copy of the notice to all current employees and former employees employed by the Respondent at any time since November 19, 1998.

MEMBER BRAME, dissenting.

In the underlying representation proceeding, I dissented from my colleagues' denial of the Employer's request for review of the Regional Director's decision, in which he found appropriate a unit limited to warehouse employees. Accordingly, I dissent here from my colleagues' granting the General Counsel's Motion for Summary Judgment and their finding that the Employer violated Section 8(a)(5) and (1) of the Act.
